HON. ELEANOR HOLMES NORTON

OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 12, 2022

Ms. NORTON. Madam Speaker, I rise to recognize the nation's community supervision professionals and the many vital roles they play in their work with justice-involved adults and juveniles. They identify opportunities and services to help individuals contribute to society, while, at the same time, holding them accountable for their actions.

In honor of Pretrial, Probation and Parole Supervision Week 2022, we salute all of those who have chosen this important career. In the District of Columbia, we especially thank the Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency for the District of Columbia and the Pretrial Services Agency for the District of Columbia and their employees for their work. Their work reflects the theme of Pretrial, Probation and Parole Supervision Week 2022, "Restoring Trust, Creating Hope."

As was the case last year, community supervision professionals have once again demonstrated great courage and resolve in continuing their work during the coronavirus pandemic. They have found innovative ways to remain connected with the people they supervise and to continue guiding them in the interest of public safety.

Community supervision agencies are valuable partners of government agencies, nonprofits, neighborhood-based groups, and all who strive to make our nation safer and stronger. We extend our gratitude to them and recognize their many achievements as we proclaim July 17–23, 2022, as Pretrial, Probation and Parole Supervision Week 2022.

HONORING LEAH SHOEMAKER

HON. SAM GRAVES

OF MISSOURI
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 12, 2022

Mr. GRAVES of Missouri. Madam Speaker, I proudly pause to recognize Leah Shoemaker. Leah recently competed in the U.S. Special Olympics and won gold in the long jump and mini javelin competitions, while also placing 5th in the 100-meter dash.

Leah is a St. Joseph native and while she has been involved in athletic competition for 17 years, 2022 was her first U.S.A. National Games. While she has certainly put in the hard work and discipline to make herself into a champion, her first inspiration was her mother, Jean Ann Davis. Jean Ann encouraged her to participate and remains Leah's greatest supporter and cheerleader. To excel in even one of these events is impressive, to excel and win against the best athletes in multiple sports is awe inspiring. Her example of hard work, dedication and excellence is deserving of being honored and commended.

Madam Speaker, I proudly ask you to join me in thanking Leah for her accomplishments and dedication that proudly represent the people of the Sixth Congressional District. I am proud to represent Leah Shoemaker in the United States House of Representatives.

RECOGNIZING THE 40TH ANNIVERSARY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE PUBLIC RADIO

HON. ANN M. KUSTER

OF NEW HAMPSHIRE
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 12, 2022

Ms. KUSTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the 40th anniversary of New Hampshire Public Radio (NHPR).

For decades, NHPR's mission has always been to provide objective and engaging reporting for New Hampshire. Previously called the Granite State Public Radio, the independent public radio broadcasted for the first time in 1981. To this day, NHPR is the largest and only station that broadcasts state-wide.

NHPR has reported on key moments in New Hampshire's history such as the Challenger tragedy in 1986, New Hampshire's first in the nation primaries throughout the years, and more recently, the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic across the state. In 2021, NHPR began broadcasting in Spanish, a necessary expansion to include our state's ever-growing Spanish-speaking population. Recognized by the Radio Television Digital News Association, NHPR has won awards in digital, investigative reporting, hard news, and news documentary categories. NHPR has long stood as a backbone for state-wide news, and it is through their important work that all Granite Staters are able to stay informed.

On behalf of my constituents across New Hampshire's Second Congressional District, I would like to thank and congratulate New Hampshire Public Radio for all the work they have done and will continue to do for our state.

TO BE THE BEST: ALL IN PERFECTION'S QUEST
(By Bert Caswell)

In every sport, on every team on fields of green . . . The Greatest Wish as seen "The need for speed" Top Gun . . . to be the best top gun, to become the slayer on fields of green to greatness run! "Watch it" 21 Pilots

In "The Danger Zone . . . the need for speed" Top Gun . . . you own.

The dream you dream on fields of green, like a lion defending their lair "Ba ba bad to the bone" George Thorogood

In the heat of battle with your warrior's heart terminating all on the scene

"We don't deal with outsiders very well, they say they have a certain smell . . . watch it" 21 Pilots

The only thing that counts, National champions above all the rest

Upon, that Altar of Greatness few will crest Holding that Trophy high, with tear's of joy
 in eyes no greater quest
 Watch it! 21 Pilots
 Awards pale in comparison not even second best
 A bond between A Band of Brothers which ever rests
 Throughout a lifetime this love story grow's for all who've passed that test.
 "Team" is really what it's takes to be the best.
 "Watch it" 21 Pilots
 From preseason to Championship game, working your gluts off to fulfill that dream
 Fighting through thick and thin, throughout injuries as naysayer's try to get under your skin,
 In "your need for speed" Top Gun and NCAA gold popped the clutch
 Led by a Great Coach and staff turning boys to men, In The Game of Life teaching them what means so much Dream time, this true Native American sport, from the Haudenosaunee all heart's so touch
 To challenge every Woman and Man to greatness stand
 In harms way in this game of power, speed, skill, grit, and might, such courage demands.
 Where, you run like the wind to find out if you're a Woman's Woman, or a Man's Man to greatness clutch
 To rein hell fire down on your opponents, and carry that crosse like in days of yore as such.
 Terp's "in your need for speed" Top Gun, toward greatness sped creating your own folklore GOLD RUSH Undefeated
 Fast breaking
 To sweet perfection, "Scheduled for termination" . . . Arnold Schwarzenegger Facing off against history as you decleated to greatness rush.
 "Watch it!" 21 Pilots
 "Maximus . . . what you do echoes in eternity" Gladiator,
 As The Lacrosse World live's in fear.
 "Fear the turtle" at least be concerned
 "Crystal? Clear!" A Few Good Men
 We'll see you next year.
 "We don't deal with outsiders very well, they say they have a certain smell" "Watch it" 21 Pilots.

Mr. THOMPSON of California. Madam Speaker, I rise today along with Congressman JOHN GARAMENDI, to honor the 801st Engineer Construction Company of the 397th Engineer Battalion, U.S. Army Reserves for its exceptional service in the restoration of the Mare Island Naval Cemetery in Vallejo, California.

The 801st Engineer Construction Company was first established on July 8, 1942 and was activated in Northern Ireland in the same year. Additionally, individual soldiers from the company were mobilized in support of the Korean and Vietnam wars. The 801st Engineer Construction Company has been instrumental in the revitalization process of the Mare Island Naval Cemetery, which had fallen into disrepair over the last 30 years. The challenging restoration of this 2.5-acre cemetery began after the City of Vallejo applied for the Department of Defense Innovative Readiness Training Program to begin transforming Mare Island Naval Cemetery into a proper burial site for our veterans.
